(208)-585-1637

Levels taught: Banjo: All, Mandolin: Beginning-Intermediate

Ages taught: All

Jason teaches an average of 37 students and has been teaching for 21 years.

22 years worth of experience: performances (2000+ live shows), recording (including session work, arranging, composing, producing), teaching both private lessons and at music camps: e.g., British Columbia Bluegrass Workshop (BCBW) in Sorrento BC (where in 2011 I was the seminar leader for the Advanced Banjo class), and the Weiser Bluegrass Banjo Camp (where I taught with Bill Evans in 2014 and 2015). I am proficient at reading and writing music (standard notation, tablature, charts), and have a thorough grasp of the elements of music theory that are relevant to the styles of music I teach.

Teaches: Banjo-3 finger/clawhammer, and mandolin

(208)-703-0011

Levels taught: All

Ages taught: All

Daniel teaches an average of 21 students and has been teaching for 40 years.

Like most Bluegrass musicians, my education is the school of hard knocks and self-taught. I took violin lessons as a young man; I also played violin in school orchestra throughout these years.

I travel to students' homes in the Boise area
