

The Dunkley School of Music is home to ten state-of-the-art teaching studios. Our outstanding professional faculty is at the forefront of teaching a wide variety of band and orchestra instruments, piano, and guitar. Students receive special discounts and exciting performance opportunities in the Dunkley Music Recital Hall. We have something for everyone: individual private lessons from beginning through advanced, Suzuki piano lessons, group classes, Kindermusik classes, and a wide range of master classes.

For additional information and to set up a trial lesson/meeting with your future teacher, please contact our Studio Director, Dr. Jane Williams, at janewilliams@dunkleymusic.com or at Dunkley Music at 208-342-5549 ext. 153.

Trumpet Instruction

Cord Breuer, B.M.

Mr. Breuer is a Graduate Assistant for Dr. Joe Tornello with the Boise State University Blue Thunder Marching Band. He holds a Bachelors of Music in Music Education from Boise State University and is completing a Masters of Music in Music Education from Boise State University as well. He is currently studying trumpet with Dr. Alex Noppe, and previously with Marcellus B. Brown, Justin Stamps and Keith Weigandt. Prior to pursuing his Master's at Boise State, Cord taught at Middleton High School in Middleton, Idaho as the Director of Bands, Orchestra, and Guitar. As a director, he increased his student-musician involvement, increased enrollment in the marching band and added ensembles. His students performed in festivals and were selected for All-Northwest, All-State, All-American Marching Band, All-Star honor bands, and honor marching bands. During the Summer, he is a staff member at the Boise State Summer Chamber Music Camp where he teaches trumpet techniques and brass ensembles. As a performer, Mr. Breuer was the 2012 featured soloist for the Las Vegas Maaco Bowl with the Keith Stein Blue Thunder Marching Band. Mr. Breuer's private students have placed in the All-Northwest and All-State Bands, State-Solo competitions and many have continued on to pursue music after high school.
