Education: I graduated from Boise State in May of 2013 with two Bachelor of Science degrees in Information Technology Management and Marketing. I have been around music all my life. My mom received her degree in Music Education from Butler University and my dad has a Masters in Music Education from the University of Kansas. I started playing piano at age 3 and trumpet at age 10. In my 4th and 5th year at Boise State, I serve as the trumpet section leader for the Keith Stein Blue Thunder Marching Band. Now, I am the Director of Marketing for the Boise State Department of Music. I make every effort to keep music a part of my life, and I strive to do so for others.
