

The Dunkley School of Music is home to ten state-of-the-art teaching studios. Our outstanding professional faculty is at the forefront of teaching a wide variety of band and orchestra instruments, piano, and guitar. Students receive special discounts and exciting performance opportunities in the Dunkley Music Recital Hall. We have something for everyone: individual private lessons from beginning through advanced, Suzuki piano lessons, group classes, Kindermusik classes, and a wide range of master classes.

For additional information and to set up a trial lesson/meeting with your future teacher, please contact our Studio Director, Dr. Jane Williams, at janewilliams@dunkleymusic.com or at Dunkley Music at 208-342-5549 ext. 153.

Clarinet Instruction

Taggart Lewis

Taggart Lewis holds a bachelors degree in music education from BSU where he studied under Dr. Leslie Moreau. He has been teaching and playing clarinet professionally for 10 years and is passionate about growing strong and enthusiastic clarinet players in Idaho. From 2011-2017, he taught in the West Ada School District, teaching elementary band, orchestra and general music. Taggart is also on the board for the Idaho Orff-Schulwerk Association . The clarinet chose Taggart in 3rd grade and he has been playing ever since. Taggart performs in Boise with Serenata Orchestra, Treasure Valley Concert Band and The Moody Jews, a local klezmer band. In 2009, Taggart attended the Belgian Clarinet Academy. In this studio, students are pushed to be the best musician and clarinetist they can be, while setting long term goals that will help them achieve their dreams.
