Specializes in Classical; Contemporary styles, mix and belt; and Broadway, Music Theater. I enjoy helping injured voices or those following treatment or surgery. I receive referrals from laryngologists and Boise State University when appropriate. I teach Jr High and High School students as well. I teach voice technique, which aids in the development of a supple and agile instrument with which to sing. With an improved instrument (voice), then one can continue to learn and sing whatever style is needed. New college freshman singers have received scholarships for voice performance. Others of my students sing with local stage performing groups, Boise Baroque, Critical Mass and Opera Idaho.

I have two different youth orchestra ensembles available to beginning-intermediate string players who want alternative group experience playing rock, fiddle tunes and contemporary music. They need not be my regular private students to participate. I also hold vacation rock camps for children age 8-12 and coach rock bands for teens at my studio. It is open to guitarists, keyboard players, drummers, string players and vocalists. Again, they need not be my regular private students to participate. I have an adult band that plays eclectic party music featuring acoustic instruments and vocal harmonies, notable for not being overly loud. We can DJ dance music if that is also needed.
